

Please do not revoke the do not call law. These telemarketers who call constantly are an invasion of our Privacy. They call anytime they want, early morning to late at night. There is no reason why an American citizen should be harassed at their home for unwanted merchandise/services. It would be a complete injustice to our freedom if we let big business dictate what happens in our private lives.